JOAN

Presented by THE RABBLE and Vitalstatistix

*Joan raises her hand to the sky.
It bursts into flames.
Everywhere there are women burning.
White ash falls.*

A miraculous historical figure, Joan of Arc is a teenage girl, a virgin soldier, illiterate and poor, predestined for sacrifice. Her body is the vessel for a nation's anxieties – and for six centuries, an effigy of gendered violence.

THE RABBLE's radical homage to Joan of Arc is an extraordinary, prescient and surreal performance.

For over a decade, feminist theatre mavericks THE RABBLE have reimagined and repopulated familiar stories. Don't miss their first presentation in South Australia, in the midwinter ambience of Vitalstatistix's home in Port Adelaide.

"No one else in Australia is making theatre like this."
